ITALIAN DESK IN INDIA

BNP Paribas was one of the first banks to start a dialogue with India in 1860 begining operations in Calcutta. This historical association with India has given BNP Paribas an unparalleled experience of the Indian economy. Today the group is present with a network of 9 branches established in 8 major cities: Mumbai, New Delhi, Chennai, Kolkata, Bangalore, Hyderabad, Pune, Ahmedabad and is the second oldest foreign bank on the Indian soil and is positioned amongst the leading corporate banks in India. Primarily a Corporate and Investment Bank, this network is able to meet all the clients financial needs, through its vast array of focused and tailored banking services that offer innovative financial solutions. In Italy BNL offers to their clients financial packages, trade services and products dedicated to internationalization together with a qualified assistance in assessing new business opportunities in India, leveraging on the synergies with the local network of BNP Paribas Group. In agreement with BNL, BNP Paribas has set up an Italian Desk, in order to contribute to the development of the commercial exchanges between India and Italy and to assist the Italian companies to establish a presence in India or to increase their local presence.

Through the Italian Desk, the Italian corporate counterparties will have full access to comprehensive solutions for all their trade finance and corporate banking needs and to the following international banking products and services:

- Current accounts, deposits
- Cash management and electronic banking
- Loan products (in local and foreign currency)
- Working capital products (in local currency)
- Trade products (Letters of Credit, collections, bill discounting, bank guarantees, pre/post shipment financing for exports, buyer's credit)
